(think of all the chaos
that is going to befall your enemy and make sure you are worked
up into a rage before
doing the spell.. this will make it all the
more effective!
When you are done try

to hide the string (with the knots now
tied) around your enemies home! This will make it more
potent! if you cannot
then save it in a
special place until you decide to untie the knot
and give your enemy a second chance)

Lucifer's Touch...

(Light 3 tall candles at midnight and repeat
the following three times. a bell rung 3
times at the beginning
of the ritual will add
potency)

I call to the mighty
bringer of light,
Lucifer...

Spirits of the abyss,
hear my call..
hear my call!
all most powerful,
one and all..
one and all!
Lucifer my thoughts
do sing
through the universe
they now ring!
take thine enemy,
take him smite..
take him smite!
Break him, scorn him,
in the night..
in the night!
from the mighty
depths of hell
cast your darkness
upon his shell.
Oh Lucifer!
Oh Shining Star!
Touch him, burn him,
from afar..
from afar!
Revenge now will have
its day.
For thine enemy shall
start to fray..
so mote it be!
so mote it be!

--Frenzy--
(work up into a frenzy of anger
thinking of the
darkness about to
descend upon your enemy. When you are done, extinguish the
candles.)

Bones of Anger (hex)

(Gather the meat of
chickens and dry
them in the sun for a few days.. then when you do this hex make
sure you are worked
up into a frenzy of
anger and hatred.
This will add to the
potency of your hex!
Be thinking of all this while doing this hex)

Before spell: tap a
tamborine 3 times
then say..
